

Essay Outline

Name _____

History _____

1. Introduction

a. Hook (impressive fact or statistic, provocative question, or joke)

b. Preview main points

i.

ii.

iii.

c. State thesis in one complete sentence (statement, not a question)

2. Body (remember that each paragraph needs a topic sentence)

a. Paragraph One:

b. Paragraph Two:

c. Paragraph Three:

3. Conclusion

a. Review main points

i.

ii.

iii.

b. Tell the reader what to do or think

Works Cited (Internet Source)

(last name of author) , (first name of author) "Title of article in quotation marks"

(Title of website in italics) (publisher of site) (Date of article—or n.d.) . Web. (Date accessed)